(d/b/a Spiteri Construction Corp.), (“Defendant Corporation”) Michael Spiteri and Loreta Spiteri , (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Vega is a former employee of Defendants Spiteri Construction Corp. (d/b/a Spiteri Construction Corp.), Michael Spiteri and Loreta Spiteri .
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a construction company, located at 1610 York Ave., New York, NY 10028 under the name “Spiteri Construction Corp.”

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Michael and Loreta Spiteri, serves or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the construction corporation as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Vega was employed as a construction worker at the construction corporation located at 1610 York Ave., New York, NY 10028.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Vega worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Vega appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Vega the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Vega to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Vega and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Vega now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq.

and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Vega seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a construction company located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Vega was employed by Defendants in this district.

Individual Plaintiff

31. Plaintiff Vega is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a construction worker.

32. Plaintiff Vega seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Aristoteles Vega Martinez

33. Plaintiff Vega was employed by Defendants from approximately January 2020 until on or about June 2021.

34. Defendants employed Plaintiff Vega as an interior construction worker.

35. Plaintiff Vega regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as construction materials and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

36. Plaintiff Vega's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

37. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Vega regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

38. From approximately January 2020 until on or about June 2021, Plaintiff Vega worked from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., six to seven days a week (typically 54 to 84 hours per week).

43. Plaintiff Vega was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

44. In fact, throughout his entire employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Vega recorded his own hours and submitted those hours to the secretary.

45. Defendants took improper and illegal deductions from Plaintiff Vega's wages; specifically, Defendants deducted $100 from Plaintiff Vega's weekly wages, when he accidentally broke a window.

At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Vega (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

50. Plaintiff Vega was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

51. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Vega not receiving payment for all his hours worked and resulted in Plaintiff Vega's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

52. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

53. Defendants paid Plaintiff Vega his wages in cash.

54. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

55. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Vega (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Vega properly for his full hours worked.

56. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

57. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Vega and other similarly situated former workers.

58. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Hernandez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

59. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Vega and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

61. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Vega and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records as required under the FLSA.
